2 Kings 5:5

And the king of Syria said, Go to , go and I will send a send a letter unto the king of Israel. And Naaman departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.

Naaman, captain of the army of Syria, was an important man, but was plagued with leprosy. Naaman was quite full of himself and his importance as a leader in the kings army. He was willing to go see the prophet in Israel whom he heard could heal his leprosy. Elisha, the prophet, knew by the Spirit of God that Naaman was relying on his importance to be healed, so when Elisha sent a mere servant to speak to Naaman, Naaman was filled with rage. Sometimes we can be like that, we think we do so many good things in this world that we are worthy to be healed, or worthy to have our problems solved by God. God is not obligated to do anything for the man or woman who thinks they deserve His gifts. We must be fully aware and humble ourselves to the fact that no good thing dwells in the heart of man, it is only by the grace of God are we able to do what we do. A humble heart gives God the glory for all His blessings. Naaman also thought his offering of gifts which included silver, gold, and fine garments would be impressive. God is not impressed with our gifts since all we have He gave us. The gifts of this world are nice but should not be something we grave after or think we can use to buy God's favor. Elisha had no desire for Naaman's gifts and couldn't have cared less about them. Elisha knew it was God who healed Naaman, and that all the praise and glory should go to God. But Elisha's servant Gehazi, could not understand why Elisha hadn't accepted such valuable gifts and secretly went after Naaman to take some for himself. Elisha knew by the Spirit of God what Gehazi had done and the leprosy that Naaman had, was put on Gehazi and to his seed. Satan tries every possible way to get our eyes off of God with the riches of this world. He wants you to think that the things of this world are more valuable than the blessings God gives. Whatever you need trust God and rely on His goodness, His mercy, and grace, and never on who you are and what you have to offer God. What impresses God most is a heart that overflows with the desire to be with God and be filled with His presence. Judy Onofri
